

AMGEN RHODE ISLAND SCIENCE & ENGINEERING FAIR

Saturday, March 21, 2009 | CCRI Warwick Campus

PROJECT GUIDELINES

JUNIORS

- Can be no more than 36 inches wide and all Jr. Projects must be placed on a table
- The project can not extend more than 6 feet above the table
- The whole project must fit within these dimensions the project cannot extend into another project area and parts of the project cannot be placed in, or extend into the aisle.
- Projects that requested electricity will have access to one outlet. Students may want to bring an extension cord as the outlet may not be immediately under their project

SENIORS

- The project can be no more than 48 inches wide and no more than 9 feet high.
- Unless previously requested, all senior projects must be placed on a table
- The whole project must fit within these dimensions the project cannot extend into another project area and parts of the project cannot be placed, or extend into, in the aisle.
- Projects that requested electricity will have access to one outlet. Students may want to bring an extension cord as the outlet may not be immediately under their project